

Mr. Soul

Here Comes Morning 7"

On August 31st, the very first record by Mr. Soul – a band hanging out in Zurich, Switzerland – will be released on Alpinechic. "Here Comes Morning" is the title of the 45rpm 7" single. 291 strictly limited and numbered vinyl-copies and an unlimited amount of mp3s on the iTunes Music-Store will be spread all over the world.

The two lost souls, which are now Mr. Soul, met a couple of years ago in a basement in Zurich, where they started to make music with guitars, bass, voice and old electronic devices. Since then they did quite a few gigs mostly in and around their present hometown, planning to conquer the planet.

It is quite obvious that Mr. Soul not only produces music, but also likes to consume it on a regular basis, be it Black Randy & The Metrosquad or Dolly Parton.
